Table of Contents

Foreword v
Nancy J. Bloch

Who Speaks for Hispanic Deaf Americans? 1
The Latino-Deaf: A New Beginning
Mark D. Apodaca

Only One Good Cow Wears the Bell for the Herd 3
Steve C. Baldwin

Who Speaks for the Deaf Community? Not Who You Would Think! 7
Elizabeth L. Broecker

Texan Contributions to Deaf America 11
Jerry G. Hassell

Anyone Can Speak, But 13
George Wm. Johnston

One Voice 17
John F. Levesque

Jumping Out of the Envelope: 19
Who Speaks for the Deaf Community?
Michele L. Listisard

Rehabilitation and Community Services: 21
For Individuals Who are Deaf-Developmentally Disabled
Mark J. Myers

Represented Body and Embodied Representation: 25
Spokespersonship and the Deaf Body Politic
Rusty Rosen

Illusion of Freedom 29
Suzy Rosen

Look Who is Talking 33
Jackie Roth

Ask Not Who Speaks for the Deaf Community, But With Whom Should We Speak? 37
Michael A. Schwartz

Who Speaks for Me? 41
Bobbie Beth Scoggins

Traditions: Hispanic, American, Deaf Culture: 45
Which Takes Precedence in Trilingual Interpreter Training?
Ralph Sedano

A Classic Case — Unification of the Deaf Community in Illinois 49
Wayne Shook

Thou Shall Speak For, With, By and Of. 53
Ann Silver

The Community Speaks for Itself 57
William C. Stokoe

From the Ground Up 61
Claude L. Stout

Can I Speak Now? 65
Trudy Suggs

One Family — Two Cultures 69
Benna Timperlake

The Economic, Social, and Political Empowerment of the Deaf Community 71
Fred S. Weiner

Does "Herstory" Speak for the Deaf Community? 75
Sharon K. Wood & Henning C. F. Irgens